Hunters Run Schooling & MHJA Local member shows- $15 per day
Hunters Run Rated Shows- $30 per day
Shows where Hunters Run is the "Host" farm- $35 per day
All other Shows- $40 per day (exception, if at not at least 3 horses $50 per day)
Additional horse per rider- $15 each per day

Schoolings fees cover the rider's training for the day, including course walk when applicable. Feed/feeding am/pm, administering supplements and medication. We take turns checking hay and water throughout the day. Stall cleaning available at $5 per day per horse.

Riding Fees

$15 for the first ride of the day, $5 for each ride after
A $5 fee may be charged for horses that are schooled in the am prior to the start of the show if the owner is not present.
For away horse shows, a horse which is not being shown by anyone except me is subject to a $15 per day surcharge. A discounted division fee may be charged for a horse competing in an entire division

Expenses

Expenses are split equally between riders at a horse show:
- Hotel room + $20 per day food expenses (please no expectations to share my hotel room)
- If camper goes $80 per day, anything exceeding 4 days drops to $50 per day
- $30- $45 per day when commuting, based on mileage to show
- When staying with friends $25 per day

Care/Misc. Fees (maximum shown)

$15 fee per day when owner is not present to care for horse, this fee is included in addition to ride fee if applicable. Grooms for full care available please make arrangements with me in advance.
$15 fee for horses that are not shown or schooled during the horse show
A set-up fee not to exceed $15 may be charged. Everyone is supposed to help, however this fee allows us to hire additional help if needed

Tack stalls/ Bedding/Medication:

Bedding is purchased directly from the horse show, if you plan on bringing your own bedding, I need to be aware of this, and we do not transport bedding. In general 5-6 bags for a 3 day show. We purchase medication from the vet then bill you what is used on your horse. If you have your own medication, please let me know. Tack stalls -1 per every 4-5 horses split equally, this means we need to share our time in them.

Transportation
